August 2015

Can you believe fall is just around the corner. Time flies.

For the most part, I have enjoyed the summer even with all the rain and storms and then scorching heat. I am a very early riser, so I just get my outside chores done early. We had a couple of weeks this month with what I call HOT days. When the temperature is 105 and the heat index of 115, I pretty much hibernated. Relief came this week though and I actually was able to sit outside and enjoy a couple of days of cool air.

The best part was watching all the hummingbirds. I have had a lot this summer. Don't let anyone kid you when you hear the expression "she eats like a bird". They eat a lot. I am going though 5 pounds of sugar a week and fall migration hasn't even started! By mid October they will be gone though until the end of March. :(

Are you sewing. It looks like it from my view. Thank you for your business! It has kept me busy.

I made a buying trip to Dallas to go though the warehouse and get additional fabric. My car was loaded when I left. I have spent this week getting a lot of new fabric on my website. As soon as I got all of it on, I had a couple of shipments arrive too.

I have several more orders that will be coming over the next couple of months. Watch for these.

I am happy to add Me and My Sister Designs to my fabric selections. Right now, I have received fabric in their line called "Hi De Ho". I also have their next line called "Dot Dot Dash" on order. If you love bright colors, you will love their fabric. I hope you will check it out.

What's New!

Stars and Stripes

Well it is not really new, but it has become my best seller. It is the perfect pattern for those wanting to do a patriotic quilt for someone or for a charity. The pattern uses a Jelly Roll® and will make a quilt 62" x 86" or 75" x 75". Both layouts are shown in the pattern. The fabric requirements are the same for both. Best of all, it goes together quick too!

So if your looking for a pattern to use for a Wounded Warrior project, give this one a try.

I ordered the "Because of the Brave" fabric just for this pattern.

Stars and Stripes - A Jell Roll Pattern

I also have Jelly Rolls and Layer Cakes for this fabric.

Happy Quilting!
