July 2016

Yes, I'm still here. It's been crazy the last few months around here. We've had a lot going on, or so it seems.

Those of you who are friends on Face book saw I was taking a short vacation in March. I went to my good friends in Houston for a long weekend. Five of us who went to high school together all stayed at her house. We went to the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo and saw Brad Paisley in concert. It was so much fun! Some of us hadn't seen each other since high school, and that was a long time ago. Here is the crazy bunch of us at the rodeo.

I got home on Sunday, and on Tuesday my husband was injured in a tractor accident. He was care flighted Plano, TX. They were afraid he had a spinal injury, but thank goodness he didn't Just a gash on his head and a broken nose, along with a concussion. It has taken quit a bit of time to get all the feeling back in his hands and legs, but it's getting there. The next day, my computer crashed, and it took 2 weeks to get it back. Of course, I was right in the middle of tax preparation. I think everything is back to working order now. I was working off my iPad and Phone. Not the easiest way to process orders.

We both ended up with some nasty cold/crud and I had an emergency trip to the dentist. Hopefully, things will settle down around here. I think I am ready for a few boring weeks. Or Months!

What's New!

Where do I start. I have added lots of fabrics to my website. Busy, busy, busy! I hope you will find something you like. More on order too!

There will be a new format on my website later this month too. It's actually an upgrade. Google says I need it.

I also added a NEW category, so it will be easier to see which fabrics are the newest.

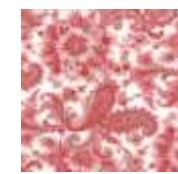

How do feel about Remnants? I am in the process of adding a section for Remnants. They are rock bottom priced too! I should have most of them added in a few days. Stock up and save on postage!
