A New Twist—Layer Cake French Braid

Jelly Roll French Braid

June 2015

Where does the time go, seems like a common phrase as we get older.

We finally sold our house in Texas in March. Now I am just a Texas girl in a Oklahoma world.

As caretakers of a resort lodge, there is always something to do. I spent a lot of time getting the gardens ready for several weeks. The gardens looked great until the rains came in May. We ended up with about 25 inches of rain for May. There is a lot of flooding around, but we are on high ground, so we were lucky.

Memorial Day we got quite a scare with a big storm. About 4:00 that afternoon the power went off and it hit. All of the sudden, we heard glass breaking in my studio/office. We were under a tornado warning, so I took cover. In a few minutes it was all over. What a mess. We were lucky. Our house only had one window broken and the lodge was fine. The flowers and trees, not so much.

Within an hour, the fire department came by clearing the road of trees down and checking on everyone. We would be without power until Thursday morning. Thank goodness we had a generator to keep the refrigerator and freezer going. My heart breaks for those who lost so much more. Feeling blessed!

Stars and Stripes - A Jelly Roll Pattern

Stars and Stripes

Well it is not really new, but it has become my best seller. It is the perfect pattern for those wanting to do a patriotic quilt for someone or for a charity. The pattern uses a Jelly Roll® and will make a quilt 62" x 86" or 75" x 75". Both layouts are shown in the pattern. The fabric requirements are the same for both. Best of all, it goes together quick too!

What's New!

So if your looking for a pattern to use for a Wounded Warrior project , give this one a try.

Downloadable Patterns

Don't forget you can now get any of my patterns in a PDF format.

Once you purchase the pattern, a link is emailed to you so you can download and print it yourself. If you just can't wait for the pattern to be mailed to you, this is a perfect solution.

Just go to Patterns, and then Downloadable Patterns from the Home page on my website.

Happy Quilting!
