Fall is here! Sort of.

The temperatures have cooled off. My hummingbirds left a week ago. The leaves are just starting to change here. I hope we have some beautiful colors this fall. We are in the middle of a wilderness area, so there are lots of trees. So many times, we get a storm before they change and they just turn brown. So far, the weather has been beautiful.

This will be our first winter here in Oklahoma since our move in June.

As many of you know we moved to Rattan, Ok in June of this year. (Southeast Oklahoma) It has been an adventure. See the June/July Newsletter for more on this story.

We have met a lot of wonderful people who have been our guests at the lodge we now take care of. This fall is booked solid too. We will get a break in the winter though. Not too many people want to take a chance in the snow and ice around here.

I haven't done a lot of sewing though. I did some curtains for our house and a few little things. No quilting though. I have a quilt to be quilted, but I will do this one myself. The main quilting service around here doesn't do custom quilting. Since the quilt is all appliqué, it calls for custom quilting. I just need to bite the bullet and get it done.

I may or may not get another newsletter out before Thanksgiving. So, I would like to wish all of you a wonderful Thanksgiving with your friends and family.

I am thankful for all of you!

Sharon

What's New!

Fabric, Fabric, Fabric

There is so much new fabric on my website, it is hard for me to choose a favorite. I hope you will take the time to check it out.

Downloadable Patterns

One thing I have accomplished, is getting all my patterns updated with my new address on them and other information.

Now you can get any of my patterns in a PDF format. Once you purchase the pattern, it is emailed to you so you can print it yourself. If you just can't wait for the pattern to be mailed to you, this is a perfect solution.

Just go to Patterns, and then Downloadable Patterns from the Home page on my website.

Another note: I just recently made a large print version of a pattern for a special customer. If you or someone else needs this, please let me know. I will try to help when I can.

Happy Quilting!

What's Happening?

When I'm not taking care of guests or cleaning the lodge after they leave, this is what I have been doing. There are lots of plants to take care of. I have been a gardener pretty much my whole life, so I do enjoy it. Good thing. There are lots of potted plants around the wrap around porch.

The lodge is ready for fall with lots of Mums and pumpkins around.

Hope your fall is wonderful.

When we do have some free time, my husband and I do a little fishing too. We always have a little contest to see who catches the first fish and who catches the most. I'm usually the winner. Hee! Hee!
