Dear Trustees,

October
In ~~August~~, 2017, officers of the Lochbuie Police Department handled 100 calls for service in Keenesburg. Nine of those of those calls for service were incidents where reports were generated and further investigation was required. Some of those incidents included:

- TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS;
- FUP (follow up);
- SEX ASSAULT;
- TRAFFIC STOPS.

Also, Your Police Department has been working on other active cases that required additional attention. The total amount of hours, spent by officers in Keenesburg during the month of October was 113 hours.

As usual, officers spend quite a bit of time at Weld Central High School, following up on active case(s). Officers are working with the administrators of the school and the school resource officer to close out the active cases.
