

Checkerboard
70" x 70"

Cut feature squares at 9" square as per image above.
From the stripe, press flat and refold on the crossgrain, cut two strips at 9" x 44" that are parallel to the selvage.
From the red, cut two strips at 2½" x WOF; cut an additional strip for extra red 2½" squares.

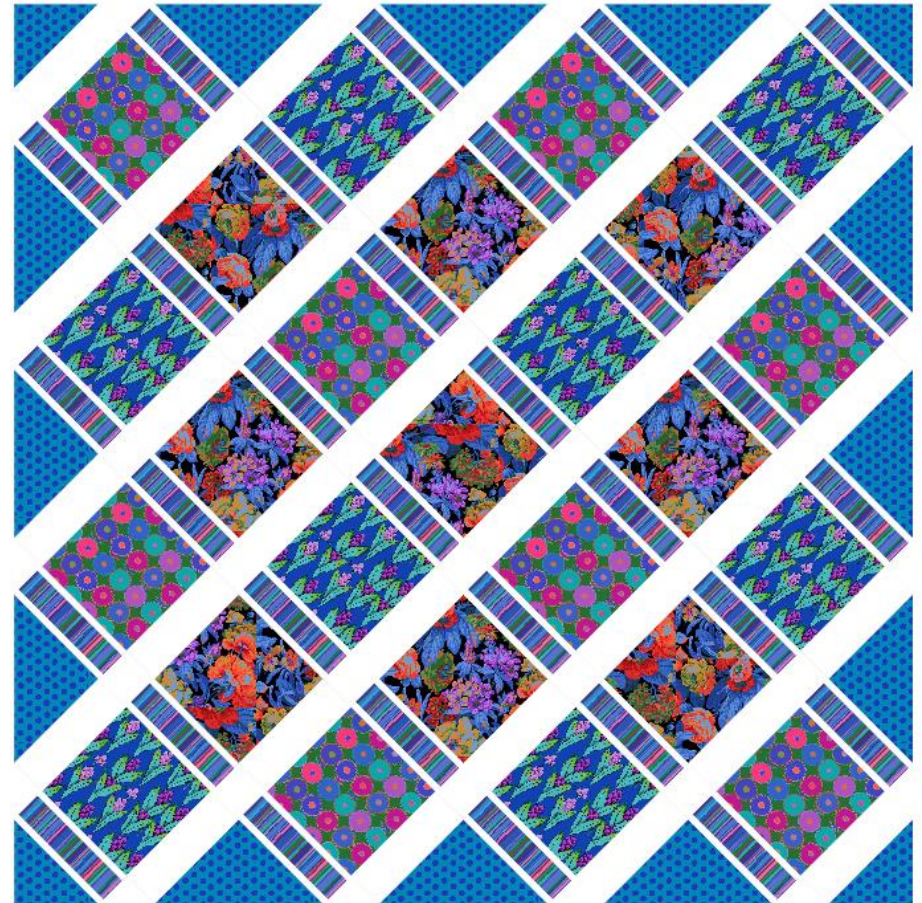

Stitch together as illustrated and subcut into 32 – 2½" units

Also from the stripe, cut two more strips on the crossgrain at 9" x 44" and subcut into 32 rectangles at 2½" x 9"

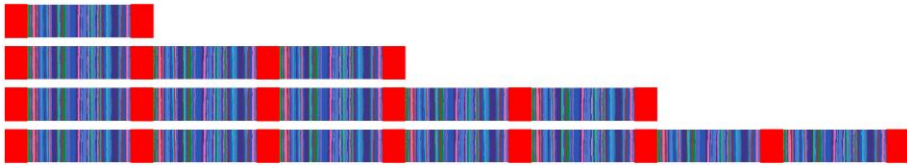

From the Spot, cut 3 squares at 13½" & cut on both diagonals to yield 12 setting triangles. Cut two squares at 7¼" and cut on one diagonal for four corner squares.

Stitch the feature squares, the striped sashing rectangles and the setting and corner triangles into diagonal rows as per illustration below.

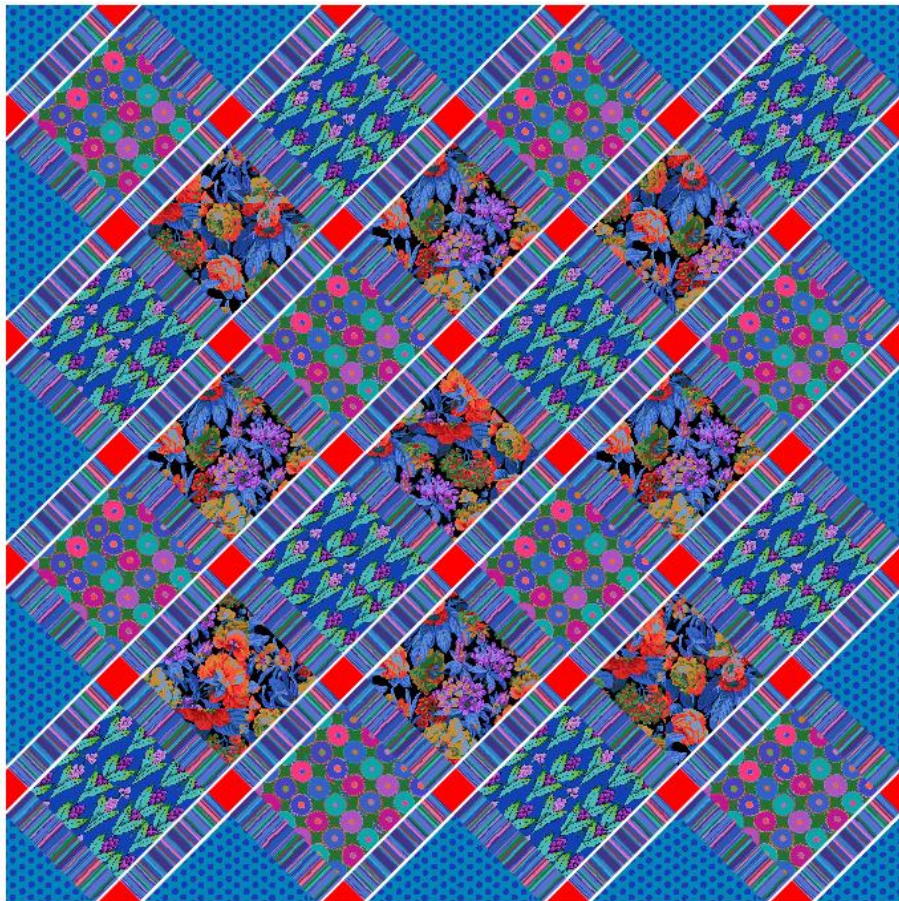

Pin a number 1-7 to the left-most and lower-most setting triangle of each diagonal row. Keep the number pinned until all pieces are sewn into rows and all rows are sewn into a quilt top.

Make two each, of the following sashing strips, from the units made in the first step, and the extra red squares.

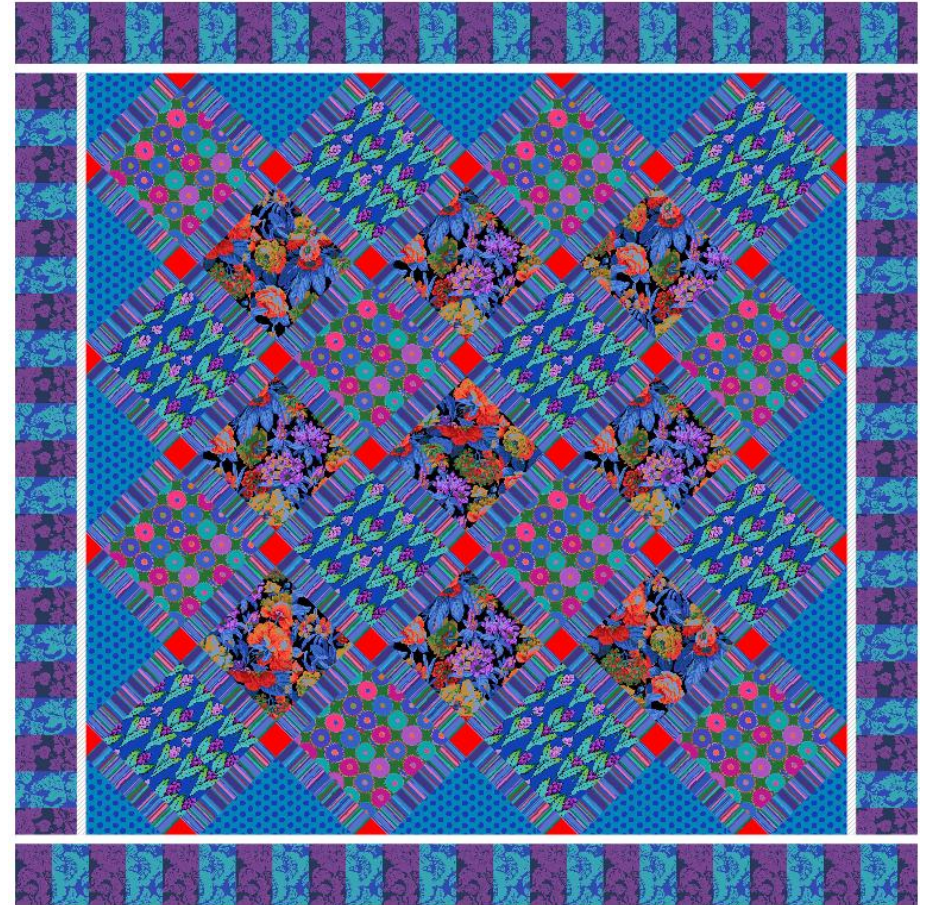

Stitch the diagonal rows together as illustrated by the white lines below.

From the Romance – Blue border print, cut seven strips at 5½” x WOF. Adjoin the strips end to end matching the motif, and cut two lengths at 60” for sides and two lengths at 70” for top and bottom. See illustration below.
