

NORTHWOODS LODGE

Deb Strain

There is something so peaceful and serene about the woods. When we have hiked amongst the pine trees and foliage, it has felt as if we were alone in the Northwoods. But hidden from view, are the residents of this lovely area of the world. Deer, bear, moose and fox roam, usually unseen, as ducks and owls inhabit the skies.

This collection celebrates the Northwoods and all that live and grow there. Pine trees, pinecones, rocks, animals and lake settings make up the main images in the group. Rich tans, pine greens, warm browns and deep blues reflect the colors of a day spent hiking and enjoying the Northwoods.

When planning your next project for that comfy cabin in the woods, or something special for the outdoor person in your life, "Northwoods Lodge" provides that woodsy feel that you are looking for!
