

Winter Friends

Deb Strain

WINTERS IN OHIO include many beautiful snowy days when the world is covered by a blanket of white. Often, the only other colors visible are the occasional winter birds that flutter among the trees. The most stunning of those is the brilliant red cardinal...easy to spot and so much fun to watch! Whether visiting a backyard birdhouse or hovering nearby a freshly made snowman, these colorful feathered friends certainly make the season Merry!

My newest wintry collection celebrates our cardinal friends and all of the joy that they bring. It is filled with winter greenery, pinecones, snowflakes, snowmen and of course cardinals. Winter Friends captures all of the beauty and cheer of a frosty winter day among our Winter Friends. Perfect for your next winter project!
