

Improv 101 Quilting Class

Date: _____

Time: _____

You know the rules- cut straight, match your points, etc... But, what if someone gave you permission to break the rules and create something that is uniquely you?

Explore Beginning Improv Quilting with Bonnie. Step away from the traditional quilting rules for a day and learn improv techniques that can be used in your next quilt top.

You will leave class with a stack of blocks, a toolbox full of tricks, and a head full of new ideas! Bonnie will also be sharing a trunk show to get your creativity going!

Each quilt will be different and of your own design. Quilt shown is just a sample of what Improv Quilts can look like. You will not be making the same quilt as pictured.*

Class prep:

Iron fabrics if tightly rolled or folded

Supply List:

5-6 Fat quarters of coordinating fabrics will work for a wall hanging, but you may want 1/2 yard cuts of 5-6 fabrics to make a larger quilt. Solids, blenders, fabrics that read as solids, or small modern prints work best. Try to have light, medium, and dark values.

If you need help selecting your colors, check out our Color Combinations board on Pinterest. You can find it at <https://www.pinterest.com/NotUrMamasQS/color-combinations/>

Quilting ruler - 5" x 12" works best

Basic Sewing Supplies, see list below

Note pad & pen for jotting notes

Individual iron and ironing mat
