NEW OWNERSHIP

New owner Sue Lorimer is in the shop and excited to be here. Sue is a talented seamstress and has quilted for over 25 years. Her love of all things fabric brought her to Ladybugz Quilt and Company and the purchase of the shop. Sue lived in Ouray for over 20 years and moved to the Pacific Northwest for three years. Two children, five grandchildren and the beauty of Colorado brought her happily back home this spring.

LOTS OF CHANGES

If you haven't been in to see us lately, please stop by to say hello. We have made some fun changes to the shop. New fabric has arrived, with more on the way! We have opened up a new room in the shop with fabric, moved some things around, added new patterns and products. We are adding classes and new events and projects are planned.

New at Ladybugz! – Open Sew Friday's

Come hang out and sew anytime on Friday's. We will be here to help, to answer questions, or to just let you sew and enjoy. Our classroom space is open to anyone who wants to spend time on a current project or to start something new. We've added more tables in the classroom, with lots of space to spread out. Join us for the day or a couple of hours. Bring lunch or a snack, we have a refrigerator and microwave for your use. Come, bring a friend, make new friends, have fun and be creative.
