The Fiber Chronicles*

Modern fibers for the nostalgic

December 2015

Hello December!

Welcome December with the bustle of holiday events, gift shopping and last minute gift making!

We hope your holiday season started off with a wonderful Thanksgiving week. We enjoyed seeing everyone during our week long promotion event and are grateful for the time off the following week to spend with our families.

Starting in December, Karen is going to be more accessible, as she be at the shop on a daily basis. This is exciting news in several ways, it allows Atomic Fibers to have time, to create more fun events and bring in exciting new items. If you haven't meet Karen before, introduce yourself the next time you come in!

We've decided for the entire month of December we will continue our $5/yard (1 yard minimum) off of clearance fabric and 30% of clearance yarn.

Remember to mark your calendars Atomic Fibers' holiday hours.

With December's fast pace, we have scheduled limited classes. Yet, there is still time to learn and make something new and quick for gift giving this month. We will be announcing a few more free classes throughout the month. Always check our website for the most current information.

Do you know, we do gift certificates as well?

As always, we are so grateful for your patronage and for supporting your local fabric and yarn shop.

Toni and Karen

Project ♥ Linus

Providing Security Through Blankets

Project Linus Workshop Day - This is our monthly Project Linus Workshop day. All items created during the day are made with the intention of donating to Project Linus of East TN. Donations are welcomed and we can find something for even the non-sewer, quilter, knitter or crocheter. Don't know what to do? Come and we will guide you to some choices. You can sew, knit or crochet! We ask you please rsvp. Second Wednesday of the month: Dec 9th

Folded Star Potholder - Another great and simple project and like potato chips, you can't make just one! Using small amounts of fabric (perfect way to use up those leftovers) create this folded design easily using templates and your sewing machine. Skill Level: Beginner Supplies included Instructor: Toni Cost: $Free + pattern & supplies Wednesday, Dec 16th, 1pm

Simple Stocking -

Make this basic stocking just in time for Santa's arrival. Stocking is 21" long and 7" wide. Once you make one you'll have to make more. This pattern allows extra creativity if you choose to add embroidery to the cuff. Pattern is supplied in class.

Cost: $25 Skill Level: Advance Beginner Instructor: Emily Doane
