

Philippines

December 26 – January 4, 2016

What better way to spend New Year's Eve than diving with your favorite Denver Divers? To help you celebrate the New Year, we will whisk you away to Puerto Galera and the Atlantis Resort where you will spend seven nights in deluxe accommodations and have the opportunity for unlimited boat diving during your stay.

Designated a Man and Biosphere Reserve by UNESCO in 1973, Puerto Galera is at the heart of the coral triangle and hosts some of the best diving in the world. Atlantis has built their resort with this in mind, giving divers the chance to do up to five dives per day from a first class facility including a state-of-the-art camera room, valet diving, and hot showers. In addition, they want to make sure you are relaxed, so they have a state of the art spa and a beautiful pool for you to enjoy.

Don't miss this opportunity to dive in Puerto Galera, Philippines with Denver Divers! Contact us at 303-399-2877 or email alimiller@denverdivers.com or stop by to sign up. A $750 deposit will hold your space, with interim payments due beginning June 2015.

Price: $4,189

Non-Diver: $3,389

Includes:

- Roundtrip airfare to/from San Francisco to Puerto Galera
- All Philippines transfers
- 7 nights deluxe accommodations at Atlantis Resort (dbl/occ)
- Breakfast, lunch & dinner daily
- Unlimited scheduled boat diving (8am-6pm)
- Festive New Year's Eve Meal
- Free internet
- All government taxes and service charges

Not Included: • Airfare to San Francisco • Beverages not listed above • Nitrox
• Underwater video fee (imposed by local sanctuary) • Additional land excursions • Personal dive equipment • Dive and trip insurance • Gratuities