Our Coordinator pays a little less for the work they put into putting a retreat together. You are responsible for making the reservations, collecting money from the attendees and sending it in. Attendees must go through the coordinator when making a payment. A Coordinator letter is sent out with more information and final payment amounts once we receive your deposit.

Deposit: $25.00 per person, non-refundable. This will be applied to your stay.

Final Payment will include the 6% Michigan sales tax, and 5% Bay County lodging tax.

Deposit is due at time of reservation and balance is due 30 days prior to arrival.

Additional Information

Please mail all correspondence to: 624 West Fifth St. Pinconning MI 48650. The Coordinator letter will include your groups balance, key code for the front door and password for the wireless internet.

The retreat home is a smoke free, child/pet free environment. If you have guests who are smokers we ask that they use the back porch where we have provided a bucket for ashes. We do have a picnic table and gas grill for summer use, located in the back yard. Please feel free to use it. If you would like to see photos of the retreat house visit our Facebook page: Bittersweet Quilt Shop for 360 degree photos of each room and outside.

If you have any questions during or before your stay please feel free to contact me at the shop.
