Class Registration Explained

When you sign up for a specialty class at Sew Pro's, we will ask you to pay your registration fee up-front and we will give you a list of the supplies for the class. Sign up as early as possible because you need to have plenty of time to prepare for the class. We want you to have success with your project, so we want you prepared and relaxed when you come to the class. If you are rushing around at the very last minute in a panic you won't feel successful -- you'll just feel frantic.

Sometimes there will be quite a bit of preparation on your end -- like cutting out quilt blocks -- before you come to class. For example, if it's a large rag quilt, you may need 80 or 90 or even 144 pieces! If you have to select 18 coordinating fabrics for your quilt, you probably can't do that the night before the class. You will likely need at least a couple of weeks to find the fabrics you like and to get ready.

Full payment of fees is due at registration and must be paid at least 14 days before class begins. We need to know, reliably, how many people will be showing up for each class so the teacher may prepare. And if you won't be able to make it, an early cancellation allows time for someone else to sign up instead and also helps the instructor plan for the class.

You must cancel at least 7 days prior to class to be issued a store credit. If you miss the class or a class session (when you are taking a class with multiple sessions) you will not be able to receive your money back for that class and we do not guarantee a make-up class.

For most classes, we need a minimum of three attendees. Sew Pro's reserves the right to cancel a class one week ahead of the first day of class when the required minimum enrollment is not met. We will issue a refund for any class we cancel.
