2018 Budget Review

Interim City Administrator Olson stated that the reason I asked for this meeting was because some laws have changed that require us to decide by July 1, 2017 if the city needs to raise the mill levy higher than what the state will allow and have an election. This is a decision that the council needs to discuss and make.

Interim City Administrator Olson stated that treasurer Sheila Maxfield completed the budget so the city would know what needs to be done. Olson also stated that in your folders is the complete budget. The council needs to review the information, and at the next meeting on June 28, 2017 be able to make a decision if the city needs to have an election.

Interim City Administrator Olson reviewed some of the high points of the budget, and there was some discussion but no decisions were made. Olson asked the council to review the budget, and bring their questions to the next meeting.
