TULA'S HOME MADE CHALLENGE CELEBRATES WHAT DRIVES US TO CREATE WITH OUR HANDS

The accomplishment of making something with our own hands is what binds us together. What to some may seem foreign, to us defines our very existence, that which expresses who we are and amplifies our sense of accomplishment and self worth. The focus of the HomeMade juried exhibit is to create an item that celebrates our community of makers and all the glory, attitude, and beauty that comes with the privilege of saying, "Hey, I made that." Each quilt will pay tribute to what drives us to create with our hands. It's about creativity, intention, approach, quality, and the pure sense of joy achieved by playing with fabric, threads, and finely crafted tools.

HOW IT WORKS:

- Make a 60" x 60" quilt featuring FreeSpirit HomeMade fabric by Tula Pink, and some application of Aurifil thread
- Each entrant can submit up to two quilts to Quilting Mayhem
- Voters will choose the top three quilts
- Quilting Mayhem will award prizes to the top three finishers: $100, $50, and $25 gift certificates
- A photo of the winning quilt will be sent to Challenge headquarters, where it will compete for a spot in a national juried show
- Twelve winners will be selected for the show. The top three winners in the nation receive up to $10,000 in prizes from Tula Pink, Aurifil, Paper Pieces, Quilter's Dream Batting, Oliso, and Renaissance Ribbons
