

Now, let's get to this fun tutorial I am going to share with you today! I actually sewed up this darling Mug Rug months ago, and sort of forgot about it! I was cleaning out my sewing room, and realized I never shared this little lovely with you guys! So today, I am going to share how I made this simple, and cute mug rug and give you the free downloadable pattern.

Step 3: Pick out fabrics you want for your tree. Iron on the fusible web (according to package directions) onto the pieces you will use for your tree. Trace pattern pieces onto fabric and then cut out pieces.

Step 4: Layout your tree onto your background fabric. Iron them in place.

Step 5: Sew your background piece to your patchwork piece.

Step 6: Now it's time to quilt your mug rug. Place your backing right side down, batting in the middle and the top right side up. Put a few pins in and quilt with your preferred method. On mine, I just outlined the pieces of the tree and star, and then straight lines around the squares.

Step 7: Trim off excess batting and backing and then bind your mug rug! You can find our binding tutorial here.
