Stars are everyone’s favorite. This patriotic quilt would look fabulous in Christmas colors. One Sister’s controlled stack and slash technique makes sewing stars a snap. Fun for all skill levels! Any One Sister or Buggy Barn pattern can be taught in this class. Book purchase required: Completely Crazy by One Sister Designs or any Buggy Barn book.*

Saturday October 13th.....1:00 – 4:30 pm

Modern Hexies.....$30.00

Cory Weir

I have an on-going ten year hexagon paper-pieced project (who doesn’t?!), but this quilt was basted and sewn (and quilted!) in under a month. I have a quick hexagon glue basting method, then another glue method to tack them down to your background fabric, and the best part, you quilt this quilt yourself on your home stationary machine. Both classes are required, the first one to learn how to baste the hexagons, the second one to quilt it. Batik fabrics are ideal because they crease so nicely. Make a pillow to learn the technique or your choice of quilt size.

Two time class Tuesday October 16th & Tuesday October 30th.....6:00 – 8:30 pm

Sew Many Stars.....$15.00

Debra Williams

Once you learn the basics of foundation paper piecing you will be hooked. While learning you will create bright happy stars, set together with diagonal lines.
