

Snowman Foundation Paper Piecing Project

LINDA LOTZ

Learn the basic steps of foundation paper piecing. You will prepare the pattern, paper piece a segment, and join the segments together. It's a great technique to use your scraps. It is essentially sewing by number to sew a design into a project. You will be making the snowman to use as a potholder, in a table runner, a mini quilt banner, or even a quilt.

Supplies:

Bring your sewing machine with cord, foot pedal and open toe foot.

The book, Paper Piecing All Year Round by Mary Hertle.

Both paper and fabric scissors

Add a Quarter Ruler (either size)

Seam ripper

Rotary cutter with a new blade

Cutting mat

Glue stick

Neutral thread

Pins (flat head pins are preferred)

2 ½" X 8" or larger ruler

Seam roller

New needle

Iron and pressing mat

Fabric:

Large scrap of blue, at least 9" X 11"

Scraps of white, orange, black and choice for scarf

2 black ⅛" buttons for eyes
