Public Comments:

Citizen Brent Craven would like the mayor to write a letter of appreciation to Deputy Yates for his time spent in patrolling our town and attending council meeting each month to report. Brent also presented his made model of the section of highway 38 leading to the cemetery. (Adding a island area to slow down traffic).

New Business:

6. Deputy Yates Report – presented a comparison chart (February 2019 vs 2020) All looks good.

7. Contract with BRWCD – Council Member Nate Spackman asked for a motion to allow the Mayor to sign the current water agreement with BRWCD. Nothing has been changed in said agreement.

Council Member Carolyn Taylor makes motion to allow the mayor to sign the agreement with the BRWCD. Council Member Jared Doman seconded the motion. Motion Passes; all approved.

Aye Votes:	Council Member Taylor	Council Member Rees
	Council Member Doman	Council Member Spackman

Discussion Items:

8. Nuisance Ordinance – Council Member Taylor expressed a concern to add "noise and lights" to the nuisance ordinance definitions area. Council Member Rees would like to make a change in Section #4 B & C re: payment 20 days, changing it to 30 days to better accommodate a monthly pay period.

Council Member Reports:

9. Lesley Kendrick – absent

10. Nate Spackman – suggested to Jacob over Cemetery that he regulate payroll closely. Notifies council of a leak on the mountain above the Doug Hunsaker property; getting Grover Excavation to dig up for repairing.

11. Jared Doman – getting quotes for spraying at the Park

12. Carolyn Taylor – Curt Whiteford and Carolyn met with John Janssen, a town planner this morning about redoing the code book. He will be sending a bid for his costs. Book needs to be in a working

Word document. Jacob Rees will check into PDF converting web pages for free. A $10,000 Grant for the volleyball court has been submitted, expecting to hear by April 1.

13. Jacob Rees – Cost of exhuming a grave – not much need to exhume graves here. Recommends leaving cost the same.

Council Member Carolyn Taylor made motion to adjourn tonight's meeting. Council Member Jared Doman seconded the motion. Motion passes. All approved.

Aye Votes:	Council Member Taylor	Council Member Rees
	Council Member Doman	Council Member Spackman
