Class Description:

Create something beautiful, cozy, and uniquely yours in our Top Knot Quilt class! Whether you're fairly new to quilting or looking to refresh your skills, this hands-on workshop guides you step-by-step through cutting, piecing and finishing several of the Top Knot quilt blocks. Enjoy a relaxed, supportive atmosphere as you learn essential techniques, explore color and pattern combinations, and leave with the confidence to finish your quilt top on your own. Come for the creativity – stay for the community!

Fabric:

- ¾ yard each of two fabrics for bows (try to avoid large or directional prints)
- ½ yard each of three fabrics for bows (try to avoid large or directional prints)
- 2 ½ yards of background fabric

Supplies:

- Top Knot quilt pattern by Pen and Paper Patterns
- Sewing machine in good repair, ¼" seam foot, extra machine needles, bobbins, coordinating thread
- Cutting Mat, Rotary Cutter, long ruler such as 6 ½" x 24 ½"
- Marking tool, Pins, seam ripper, thread snips or small scissors

Homework before class:

- Please have fabric pressed and ready for cutting before class
- I recommend starching your fabric with Best Press or something similar before cutting
