

Both of the rulers above are the most commonly sold. As you can see, the diagonal 45 degree line goes from corner to corner. This is extremely important when you want to use these rulers to square up half-square triangles.

This ruler has 45 degree lines but they don't go from corner to corner. You will be unable to square up with this style ruler. Please do not buy this style of ruler

