Dear Quilting Friends,

I can hardly believe it is almost time for the holidays already. Time sure seems to go by quickly when you are having fun, We have some exciting events planned, a new ruler quilting class, and fun projects to help you get ready for the holidays. We would like to give a warm welcome back to Donna R. She took a break from teaching while she was recovering from back surgery and we are so happy she is doing well. She has a brand new ruler quilting project she is going to teach for us. Accuquilt is coming in for a special event on Nov 8th. And we will have two Janome Test Drives. One day for quilting and the next for embroidery. We hope you and your family have the absolute best holiday season filled with love and peace. Thank you for your continued support of our shop. We value each of you. Happy Quilting, DeeDee
