Capital Quilts will be closed on July 4.

CLASSES FOR JULY, AUGUST, & SEPTEMBER 2019

Dear Friends,

Summer has arrived and Row by Row has begun! From now through September 3, visit participating quilt shops around the country and collect their patterns and kits. Don't forget to enjoy browsing around all the shops! If you see something you wish we had at Capital Quilts, let me know; I am always open to suggestions.

Make a quilt using at least 8 different 2019 Row by Row blocks; don't forget your label. Take it to any participating shop; if you are the first to bring a Row by Row quilt to that shop, you'll get a prize of 25 Fat Quarters. The Quilters' Quest shops are making it easy for you: we have coordinated our blocks and have a pattern that you can use to make a quilt with them. Visit www.quiltersquest.org or ask at any of the shops for more information about our quilt. Visit www.rowbyrowexperience.com for more information about Row by Row.

We are thrilled to have Liz Jordan join our staff. Liz is a lady of many talents: quilting, needlepoint, embroidery, felting, knitting, cross stitch...basically almost anything related to textiles. She also loves adventure travel and has climbed Kilimanjaro, visited Machu Picchu, and explored the Amazon. Welcome, Liz!

There are lots of great classes listed in these pages. If you know someone who wants to learn how to quilt, tell him or her about our Complete Course of Quilting that begins on July 1. Take a quilt class, or a zippered pouch class. Try something new, like beading or fabric jewelry making. Have your quilts appraised by Phyliss Hatcher in September. Learn how to hand quilt or machine quilt. Contribute to the greater community by participating in our Capital Quilts Cares program.

Kid's Camp is August 5-9, 10:30-1. Some of the projects we've done before and some are new. If your child has come to Camp in prior years and doesn't want to make the same project again, we can find a new project for him or her to work on. We are very flexible, and we'd love to have your child continue the quilting journey!

Go 'n' piece,

Alison
