

Sewing Concepts

Woodstock

Sewing Concepts CLASS INFORMATION

(WOODSTOCK STORE ONLY)

Instructor	Yvonne
Class / Pattern Name	A Sky Full of Stars
Dates	October 22, 2026 - 1-5pm October 29, 2026 – November 5, 2026
Class Description	Create the quilt A Sky Full of Stars from the book Panel Mash Up. The Stripology XL Ruler will be taught in this class, but a regular quilting ruler is ok to use. Use any panel that is 34 1/2" x 40 1/2" to make this quilt. We happen to have these beautiful Santa panels in stock and it works beautifully with this pattern.
Skill Level	Confident beginner with basic quilting skills – must know how to use a rotary cutter
Supply List	First class bring: • The book – Panel Mash UP available at Sewing Concepts • Nice to have but optional – Stripology XL Ruler available at Sewing Concepts • 6" x 24" quilting ruler, Rotary Cutter, Favorite square up ruler, Tucker Trimmer I is perfect • Marking pens, pins, etc. • Zip lock bags to organize the fabrics • Fabrics listed in the book, Panel Mash Up, pg. 34 Second and third class bring: • All of the above • Sewing machine - ¼ inch foot • Neutral thread for piecing
Schedule	Class one: Thursday October 22nd This class we will cut out the quilt top. The Stripology XL ruler will be demonstrated; a regular quilting ruler can also be used. Homework: Finish cutting out your quilt Class two: Thursday October 29th Begin piecing blocks Homework: Finish pieced blocks for the last class Class three: Thursday November 5 Assemble quilt top with borders