

Sew-ology Gazette

August 2020

Dear Material Girls and Guys,

It has been a few months since I had to write one of these but don't get too excited its not chopped full of as much fun as usual. Classes at the moment will only be virtual. We know that you are anxious to return to sewing and socializing in the classroom. However, we are not quite ready to open the classrooms. Amy is offering a small sampling of beginner classes as well as some more advanced options as well. We have both quilt and bag options available. If you have a topic that you would like to learn, please drop Amy a note at materialgirl@verizon.net and she will try to incorporate it into a future class or even a Facebook "Chat Live with Amy" lesson.

Thank you for your continued support and keep on sewing,

Amy, Robin, and Mike

VIRTUAL

All classes will be held virtually via Zoom. You will receive log in instructions a few days prior to the start of the class.

JULY 17-AUGUST 18

Have fun exploring all the ways to bust that stash and make fabulous quilts with great results! Each month we'll focus on new techniques and projects. AccuQuilters is for those who want to learn more about an AccuQuilt machine or already own one and want to effectively use your AccuQuilt GO! Cutter, dies, and looking for inspiration.

During club meetings you will sharpen your skills with a demonstration, tips, project ideas, questions and answers, and Show & Tell Inspiration from your fellow members!

Bright Shining Ray of Sunshine

Saturday, August 1 10:00am - 11:00am $10

Please note that if you were registered for the April AccuQuilters, we will move you registration to August unless you let us know to place your money on your store account.

For our Beginner and New Sew-ist

Beginner Quilting

Have you picked up sewing during the pandemic to make masks and ready to learn more? Let's keep that interest going and learn to quilt virtually. Grab some fat quarters, and you're on the road to a fast and fun quilt!
