Cutting Diagram Fabric A

Note: Use this cutting diagram to make the most of your fabric. For directional fabric add an additional ½ yd and cut three 4 ¼" strips.

Tool Preparation

Prepare your Gem Ten and Gem Five tools by attaching either True Grips™ adhesive rings or loops of clear packaging tape to the tools.

Cutting

- Cut Strips as listed.
- Cut ten of C using the Gem Ten tool.

Cut 10

- Cut forty of D using the Gem Ten tool on the 6 ½" line or the full sized Gem Junior tool.

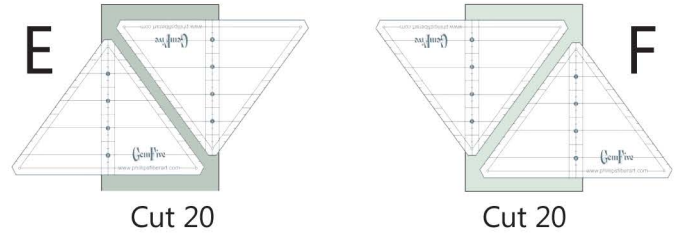

Cut 40

Cutting Continued

- Place the Gem Five tool onto the A fabric, aligning the 1/4" line to the edge of the fabric as shown. Note: this adds the necessary seam allowance.
- Cut twenty of A using the Gem Five tool.
- Cut twenty of A using the other side of the Gem Five tool.

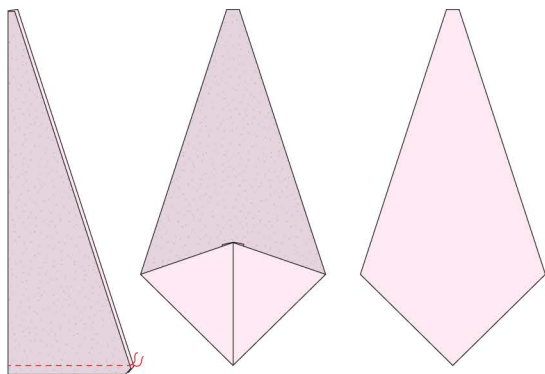

- Place the Gem Five tool onto the E fabric, aligning the 1/4" line to the edge of the fabric as shown. Note: this adds the necessary seam allowance.
- Cut twenty of E using the Gem Five tool.
- Cut twenty of F using the other side of the Gem Five tool.

Sewing the Large Dresden

- Fold the C piece in half.
- Sew along the bottom using 1/4" seam allowances.
- Turn the point and press open, center the seam.
- Repeat for all ten pieces.

- Sew together using 1/4" seam allowances.
- Press seams open.
- Sew two halves.
- Sew the halves together matching center points.

Sewing the Small Dresden

- Fold the D piece in half.
- Sew along the bottom using 1/4" seam allowances.
- Turn the point and press open, center the seam. Repeat for all forty pieces.

Always Use 1/4" Seams!

Sewing the Border

- Sew piece A and F together using  $\frac{1}{4}$ " seam allowances.
- Sew piece A and E together.
- Sew F to E.
- Repeat for all twenty triangles.
- Sew 5 triangles together.
- Add a B strip to each side to make a border unit.

make 4 border units

Be careful not to loose the point of your EF Triangle

Assembly

- Applique the Large Dresden to the 23" A square.
- Applique the Small Dresdens to the 15" A squares.
- Sew the borders and dresdens together as shown.

Finish

- Layer
- Quilt
- Bind

Dresden Gem Creative Option

Our sample of this option uses fussy cut Gem Tens. You'll need extra fabric for fussy cutting. Be sure to add this to your yardage as indicated. See our video page for Fussy Cutting videos.
