

Workshop 2: Quick Prep Appliqué Technique Oriented – 6 hours

Teacher: Connie Sue Haidle

Description: This is a technique class. We will NOT be making a specific project. Instead each student will make samples of the various techniques that they can take home for reference. I will provide a kit for $20.00 per student that the students will use to make their samples

Prerequisite: Each student should know the appliqué stitch and be able to stitch inner and outer curves and inner and outer points.

Morning

Hour 1 – Line an appliqué patch

Hour 2 - Make a split leaf

Hour 3 – Stitch a bias stem

Add embroidery to our appliqué.

Afternoon

Hour 4 – Make a skinny stem

Hour 5 – Stitch a circle

Hour 6 – Prepare dark background fabric for appliqué.

Supply list:

1 light box for every 5 students

Each student should bring a basic sewing kit including:

Scissors (both regular and serrated if you have them)

Thimble

Needle threader if you normally use one (Optional - can skip if you don't usually use one)

1 spool 50 wt. or heavier white or light-colored thread

1 spool 50 wt. or heavier black or very dark-colored thread

1 fat quarter of good quality muslin or light-colored 100% cotton quilting fabric

1 large needle size 5, 6, 7, or 8

Pins

#2 lead pencil

Each student will purchase a kit that I will supply. It will contain:

- Pattern for class
- Applique fabric for class
- Packet of needles
- Applique turner
- 1-spool Kimono silk in a neutral color
- Pattern to make after class
- Handouts

Number of students: Maximum 20 If there are more who want to take the class, I would be happy to repeat the class. The $400.00 charge applies for each class taught.

Charge: Trunk show - $100.00. This includes up to 2 trunk shows. If applicable one will be in the afternoon and the second in the evening

Note: Trunk show and one workshop must be booked together. The workshop and trunk show do not have to be on the same day.
