

Class Description:

Disappearing nine patch quilts are known for their intricate and complicated-looking designs, even though they're incredibly simple to make. During this class you should be able to piece enough blocks to complete much of the lap quilt top. The table runner top and borders can be completed during class. Discussion of borders and how to complete the quilts will be included. This class is appropriate for levels of sewing experience.

About the Instructor:

Judi has been quilting and teaching quilting for over 40 years. She enjoys sharing her quilting knowledge and helping students to discover new ideas and increase their skills.

Project Samples will be shown at the February and March Guild Meetings!

Admission by advance registration only.
No refunds after March 30th, 2019.
