

Grandma Ginger

If you call Always In Stitches the phone may well be answered by Grandma Ginger. She began working at the shop for fun after retiring from nursing. She says it helps fill her time and she enjoys working with people.

Grandma Ginger helps make beautiful gift baskets and disperses donated fabrics and yarns to various charities. She also works on samples for the shop, especially the ones in our wool department. When asked what her next project is she says “the list is long and added to all the time”

In her spare time, she like to feed and watch the birds in her yard, walk her dog, read and watch OLD movies.
