"October had tremendous possibility. The summer's oppressive heat was a distant memory, and the golden leaves promised a world full of beautiful adventures. They made me believe in miracles."

Happy FALL to Everyone!

I love this time of year, pumpkin spice, spectacular colors, cooler weather, did I mention pumpkin spice!

We still have some fantastic Fall fabric collections available, as well as a great selection of Christmas and Winter fabrics.

I want to encourage everyone to find a great Charity in your local area and make a quilt for that Charity. You are all such talented quilters, share that gift with others.

Happy Ghost and Ghou! month!

Sew & Tell

Paula Markara shows off a pastel Jelly Roll Race

Jackie Gallagher is overrun with bear paws. This huge quilt will stay with Jackie. In the meantime, she is bound and determined to get some color into her sister's life with this bold floral and green quilt.

All the lizards at Julie Gierhart's house are Hexagonal

Lori Flansburg thought a Funny Farm quilt would be just perfect for her Grandniece.

Jude Casco's Tower of Power

Jude has been busily working on donation quilts (trying to get rid of fabric so she can buy more). These are all 3-yd patterns.

This pink, white & blue quilt looks like it could be a game board.

So, Paco Rich says this quilt is called "Apple Skies". It's another one of her creations and the pattern is for sale. These must be Indigenous Apples because the whole effect looks like a Navajo rug. Gorgeous colors and beautiful quilting.

Beautiful oriental fabric really shows up against the black and solid red.

Is there anyone who doesn't like teal & purple? Especially together?

Dana Gleghorn made this cute quilt for the new kid in town – her first Grandbaby – Agnes.

And finally, a 2-toned Log Cabin. Nice job, Jude!

For some reason, Sue Brack cannot make a small quilt. Here she shows her multicolored version of Paco's Mystery Quilt and her Dream (Nightmare) quilt made with green and blue.

Lucille Bell has been saving scraps for dog Beds but she managed to save this cute Pink for a donation baby quilt.

Sue Brack makes 2 Cal. Kings . . . Carol Pickering makes a Mug Rug. Could be worse, could be another quilt junk journal.

Sandy Shelley had FABRIC FOR THAT to make this darling quilt for a little girl.

Another hand-dyed beauty from Jeanne Gennaro. Everyone stock up on cotton bed sheets for her class to Dye For next summer.

Front and back of Leanne Lawrence's Bear Paws quilt. She has been practicing Dying under Jeanne's tutelage. Looks like she's got it down pat.

And then there's the problem of having one bear too many. What to do? Turn it into a Bear Bag as a gift for Aunt Judy.

QUILT OF VALOR

Made and Quilted by Sandy Shelley

Members of the Southwest Valor Quilters set up and manned a Quilt of Valor booth for the 2022 Grant County Fair. The booth attracted a lot of interest from Fair goers and Jude Casco, SWVQ Liaison, expects to have several nominations for new QOV recipients.
