ISSUE 62
February, 2022

All you need is love.

But a little chocolate
now and then doesn't hurt.

Charles M. Schulz

Happy February to All,

Hope everyone is doing well and sewing up a storm. I got two quilts completed last month. Hope the whole year continues to be that productive!

There are two fun events going on here at Aunt Judy's Attic right now - PhD 2022 and I Have Fabric for That. Pictures are posted on our Facebook Page featuring participants' progress.

Upcoming excitement: new fabric; Beginning Sewing Class in March; Mystery Quilt starting in April; and lots of other fun stuff to challenge you and inspire you.

Hope everyone has a sweet-filled month, it is, afterall, the Month of Chocolate! lol

Julie Gerhardt says she was so inspired by the table runner exchange at the December TT, she had to go home and make some for herself.

Due to inflation and food price increases, the 5 Second Rule has been extended to 10 seconds.

Who doesn't need more bowl cozies – especially ones made out of great Southwestern fabric. Unfortunately, Lori Flansburg plans to keep these beauties for her own use.

Elaine Martinez holds up a miniature book made by one of those Junk Journalers. There is nothing small about this miniaturist.
