"Let us be grateful to people who make us happy, they are the charming gardeners who make our souls bloom."

~ Marcel Proust

May Flower Greeting!

Wow, I can't believe it is May already. Summer is rushing toward us.

We are continuing to have some great classes here at the store. Watch for more coming each month, including another round of Beginning Quilting.

Lots of wonderful fabrics are here just waiting for adoption by loving quilters.

Hope you all have a fun, exciting month.

Judy

TERRIFIC Tuesday in April

Lynda Wysong with a beautiful brown mystery quilt

We still have 9 Mystery
Quilt patterns available.

Full Circle Mystery Quilt by Dana Gleghorn

Sandy Shelley "I have fabric for that" big block quilt

Sandy Correa has been racing with this jellyroll.

A One Block Wonder from Lori Flansburg

It's Paco Time – here with her Full Circle Mystery Quilt and a Cancer quilt made for her sister.

Honoring those who served

This beautiful Quilt of Valor was made by Bonnie Davis. Paco quilted it on her long arm to give it a very special look for the veteran who will receive it.

Ongoing Contest Winners for March

PhD – Jude Casco
I Have Fabric For That –
Mary Ellen Udero

Sherrelle Wilkerson shows off a purse made out of some of the new South West fabric in the store. Inside is a wallet to match. Would you like to learn how to make the wallets? Let Sherrelle know and she will set up a class.

And according to Sherrelle, a little OCD goes a long way. Here is her 1st row of Block of the Month blocks -- all the fabric is matching.

Hiding behind this beautiful green bargello PhD quilt is Twila de Vinney

Another outstanding bargello made by Alicia Ottenson

Julie Gierhart seems to be in a BLUE period with this paper pieced star quilt (40 pieces in each star) and the wonderful blue and white sampler . . .

. . . and the May Flowers

This darling Winnie the Pooh baby quilt is a PhD for Jillyn Dille and then she created this special one in flannel.

In Memory of Caroline Miller

12/28/1934 – 4/15/2022

Caroline had a passion for life and a positive attitude. She loved to play bridge and was an obsessive quilter who produced dozens of stunning quilts in her lifetime.

Caroline's husband, Chuck, always told their children that he "taught Superman to fly", but Caroline quilted the "MAGIC" into his cape.

QUILT OF VALOR

March QOV Recipients

Petty Officer Greg Gomez, USN
Quilt Maker: Nancy Tittman

QOV annual dues of $15 are due now. You may leave your check or cash at Aunt Judy's Attic. Please make checks payable to Jude Casco.

There are still some QOV kits available at Aunt Judy's Attic. Please sign out any kits you take and return the finished quilt to the store in 3 months.

Thank you.

Our men and women that put on their uniforms each day to serve are the ultimate representation of the American spirit. They had a love for their country so great that they were willing to lay their life down in order to ensure that their family and friends could continue to comfortably live the lives we do. They make the absolute greatest sacrifice as an American, and they deserve our utmost respect for doing so.
