Jean Smith with her Mimbres Bear Table Runner

Sherelle Wilkerson used a flower center panel for this One Block Wonder

Somewhat this old Wedding Ring quilt top found its way to Paco Rich's longarm. It is so nice to preserve these old quilts.

Jillyn Dille quilted this whole cloth, cross stitched, rose top for a friend. Her quilting is gorgeous.

Is the extent of your “Stash” getting you down? Grab your sewing machine and a bag of that weighty fabric and head to Aunt Judy’s Attic on October 7 & 8 for Charity Quilt Sew Days. It’s a lot of fun with some really great sister quilters. Enjoy a Potluck lunch. Kibbitzing is encouraged.

Gnome-N-Wall

Dana Gleghorn has strange little Gnomes everywhere!

Jackie Gallagher got into the New Mexico spirit with this Kokopelli table runner, made in her Quilting 102 class. She also completed this stunning Bee Quilt with lots of yellow and green.

A very proud Barbara Guber shows off the quilt made for another grandson who has just become an Eagle Scout

Lucille Bell made up this colorful donation baby quilt using up scraps that will attract any baby’s attention.

Some people have been DYEing to become quilters. On the left, Leanne Lawrence shows off the dying she did with the help of Jeanne Gennaro. Leanne is a full-time RVer who spends her summers in Silver City and winters in Mexico. Jeanne invited Leanne to come to Terrific Tuesday. And speaking of Jeanne, here is her "Network Stars Quilt" (front and back). The colors on the dyed back are just spectacular and flow with the stars on the front. Great job, Jeanne.

Quilts of Valor

Maria Garcia made up this Quilt of Valor at the recent Retreat outing.

So Sandy Shelley says, "this is what happens when you don't give Jude back the fabric scraps from a QOV kit."
