Happy National Quilt Month to Everyone!

Let's celebrate by wrapping up in a quilt someone has given to you, making a quilt for someone, cutting out a quilt for future piecing, or my favorite: visit your local quilt shop!

I am always happy to see my customers and share their creativity.

Here at the "Attic" we are having some wonderful ongoing events. My Dream Project and PhD (Projects Half Done). There is no time limit on these events, everyone is still welcome to join us. Just go to <https://www.auntjudysatticnm.com/classesevents.htm> to read all about it and sign up for the fun. Pictures of progress and completed projects are always shown on Aunt Judy's Attic Facebook page, so join us there too.

Have a wonderful month.

Judy

TERRIFIC TUESDAY IN FEBRUARY

Sew & Tell

Bonnie Davis with two wedding quilt cases for two of her grandchildren.

Becky Rea made two baby quilts – Winnie the Pooh and a collection of darling animals.

Sandy Shelley used templates to make this great quilt that looks just like homemade Christmas Candy.

This colorful bowtie table runner is made out of blocks Sandy saved from our dear friend, Nelda Brown. What a beautiful way to remember a quilter who loved quilting and fabric almost as much as she loved the quilters.

Everyone is welcome at Barbara Guber's house!

 IRISH BLESSING

Marnie Stewart is either finishing up last year's Christmas quilt or getting a head start on this year's!

And last, but never least, Sherelle Wilkerson made a cute kid quilt out of another book panel. This "I Spy" helps the little ones learn their colors.

2021 Events for Aunt Judy's Attic

"My Dream Project"

This 10-month project starts January 2021 and runs through October 2021. All quilters have a "Dream Project" that they would like to do. This may be tackling that quilt pattern you have loved from a distance but were afraid to try, or the pattern you bought 20 years ago and keep thinking "someday". It could be learning how to thread paint, paper piece, English Paper Piece or even design and create your own quilt. The goal of this event is to challenge you to get out of your comfort zone. See progress on our Facebook page.

It will run like our annual PhD Quilt Event in that you will need to report monthly as to your progress with photos or at Show and Tell on Terrific Tuesdays, however this will just be one project. Anyone may participate, the more the merrier. Monthly door prize drawing will be held and awarded, and a Grand Prize Drawing will be held the 1st of November.

Stretch yourself, get those creative juices flowing, think out of the box!! Pick up your project sheet now and HAVE FUN.

2021 PhD Event

This year our PhD will be an 8-month event that will start in February 2021 and run through October 2021. Many people have told me they really want to have the ability to participate in this project again. It has allowed many to clean out those started projects and get them completed.

B.O.M. "Illusions" by Banyan Batiks begins Jan 2021. A $50⁰⁰ deposit is required by May 1st. Call today to get in your reservation.

QUILT OF VALOR

QOV SEWING DAYS

The annual QOV "virtual" sewing days were held February 5th and 6th at Aunt Judy's Attic. Besides Sherelle Wilkerson, Bonnie Davis and Toni Richardson (who were able to snatch a table) several others sewed in their own groups or at home and then brought their quilts in to share at February's Terrific Tuesday.
