June 2021

It is better to be a young June Bug than an old bird of paradise.

~ Mark Twain

Almost Summer Greetings!!!

Wow that got here fast, huh?

I hope everyone is busy with fun summer activities and just enjoying life.

We are having some fun events ongoing here at Aunt Judy's Attic: Dream Project; PhD; Mystery Quilt and starting soon – a Challenge quilt. Pictures of the Dream Project and PhD progress are posted on Aunt Judy's Attic Facebook page. Follow along on the fantastic progress everyone is making.

Also, watch for an In-Store SALE on June 24 – 26. While Judy is away, Daun and Marnie will play!!!

Hope you all have a fantastic June. Wave at people while you are driving. It will make them smile.

Great Niece's graduation quilt

Becky Rea has been busy making quilts for the whole family.

Nephew's wedding quilt

Great Niece's quilt

Fay Poudrier seems to be going around in circles - - -

A Southwestern hanging,

And the front and back of a table topper.

Kathy Cole remembers a wonderful trip to Alaska with this great wallhanging.

Below, a super tactile owl for the special baby on Kathy's quilt list.

Sandy Shelley's garden of succulents

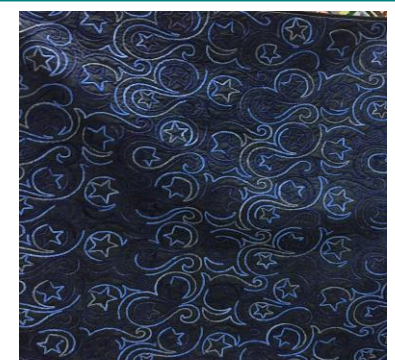

Yea!!! Our noble leader with great nephew Austin's Train Quilt

Christmas at Marnie Stewart's

Paco Rich has been playing with her new longarm – couching yarn and free motion quilting

Tonie Richardson's chenille robotic design on Paco's longarm.

Did we ever mention that Sherelle Wilkerson REALLY likes bright colors? Super Nova is bright!

Some little boy is going to be all over this dinosaur quilt that Grandma Sandy Hudson made him.

Wild animals for Jillyn Dille's granddaughter.

Dream Projects

Terri Summers with some of her Dream "Pickle Blocks"

Elaine Martinez continues to work on her blue & white log cabin quilt. By now, she must have enough blocks to make several quilts – or cover her whole house with them.

Are we to assume that Fay Pourdrier likes fishing, likes to eat fish, considers herself a mermaid? Boop boop. Dittum dottum, waddum Choo. And they swam and they swam . . . (well, you remember how it goes)

QUILT OF VALOR

Today's military is composed of volunteers and has always been about having their buddy's back. From those "in the rear with the gear" to the front-line service member, being touched by war can take many forms. Anyone who has taken the Oath of Enlistment has accepted the burden and risk and may be touched by war in ways that are not totally apparent. Whether in times of war or peace, we cannot know what they experienced and how it affected them. Our goal is to honor them with a healing and comforting quilt that says, "Thank you for your service, sacrifice and valor in serving our nation."

Catherine Roberts, Founder
QOV Foundation International

Sandi Hudson gets into Quilts of Valor with this great ol' Red Truck panel. She made this quilt for a family member.
