Well January is here! New year, new goals, new quilting and sewing projects. I hope everyone is well and planning lots of cool creations for 2021. To be in compliance, we have to limit attendance at Terrific Tuesday, but now you can view what's happening on Facebook Live. Hope you will join us on the 2nd Tuesday of each month.

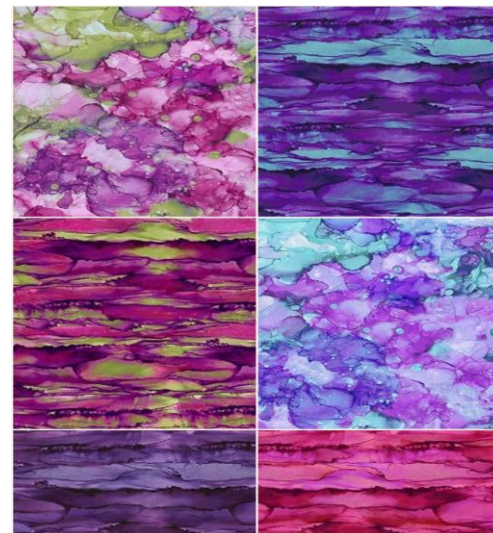

Happy sewing and strive to smile each day!!!

TERRIFIC TUESDAY IN JANUARY

Sew & Tell

Jillyn Dille played with white & 50 shades of grey

Jude Casco showed off her wool pillow – hand applied by wooly Gail Young

Sandy Shelley used Charm Packs for this cute multi-patterned quilt

Sandy would be happy to share this nativity pattern made with 2" squares.

The best thing to hold on to in life is each other.

Front Gnome-nelature Back

Kristi Porter is really into hangin' with her Gnomies

Sue Brack [who is faceless] got a head start on her Dream Project. See the next page for more info on this fun event that is happening now at Aunt Judy's Attic.

Mustang panel + an interesting border made this Sherrell Wilkerson wall hanging unique.

Yep, those are horses running around the inside border on Lori Flansburg's sampler quilt. Look closely, all the quilting is done on her HOME sewing machine.

Quilters don't always make quilts. Sandy Correa made three patchwork suitcases for when the Grandkids come to visit and Carol Pickering made her grandson a quiver for the arrows he got along with a handmade bow from his Mandan Hidatsa Indian Grandfather.

2021 Events for Aunt Judy's Attic

"My Dream Project"

This 10-month project starts January 2021 and runs through October 2021. All quilters have a "Dream Project" that they would like to do. This may be tackling that quilt pattern you have loved from a distance but were afraid to try, or the pattern you bought 20 years ago and keep thinking "someday". It could be learning how to thread paint, paper piece, English Paper Piece or even design and create your own quilt. The goal of this event is to challenge you to get out of your comfort zone.

It will run like our annual PhD Quilt Event in that you will need to report monthly as to your progress with photos or at Show and Tell on Terrific Tuesdays, however this will just be one project. Anyone may participate, the more the merrier. Monthly door prize drawing will be held and awarded, and a Grand Prize Drawing will be held the 1st of November.

Stretch yourself, get those creative juices flowing, think out of the box!! Pick up your project sheet now and HAVE FUN.

2021 PhD Event

This year our PhD will be an 8-month event that will start in February 2021 and run through October 2021. Many people have told me they really want to have the ability to participate in this project again. It has allowed many to clean out those started projects and get them completed.

Quilters who start projects
and never finish
them are cooler than quilters who never start projects in the first place.

QUILT OF VALOR

2020 QOV BLOCK DRIVE

Each year, the QOV Foundation sponsors a Block Drive. These blocks are used to make quilts for veterans in areas where there is no organized QOV group. For 2020, all members were asked to sew 9 Patch blocks in blue and white or red and white. We started with a goal of 1,000 and quickly realized that number would be reached way before the end of the year. In total, The Southwest Valor Quilters made 2,076 blocks – enough for over 100 quilts. We would like to thank Nancy Tittman (over 1,000 blocks) and Bonnie Davis (over 400 blocks) for their efforts in making this a success.

QOV SEWING DAYS

Join us February 4th and 5th for “virtual” sewing. A few people will be sewing at Aunt Judy’s Attic, but unfortunately there is not room for all. Gather your friends or sew at home as we will be checking in on everyone throughout the weekend. Kits are available at AJA – please sign out the number you take so we can keep track. For more info, contact Jude Casco at 619-607-2821.
