General Information

We have so many classes to offer you this year, and so many wonderfully talented teachers to share their knowledge, skills and passion with you! Block out the whole two weeks and come join us!

How to Book: Bookings can only be made either on the phone (03 9877 1664) or in person in our shop. We will be making all of our Summer School information available on our website too, but bookings cannot be made via our website. Our shop is open Tues thru Sat 10am – 4pm.

Payment information: To confirm your spot, a non-refundable deposit of $50 is required. The balance due may be paid off in $100 increments each month (see payment schedule on enrolment form). Full payment is due by Wed 12/12/18.

In addition to the cost of each course you may need to purchase a pattern and / or a kit or fabrics, and any equipment required to make the kit/quilt etc. There are also requirements lists / kits required for most of the classes and these will be available well before Summer School.

Payments (less $50 deposit) are refundable only up to 31st December, 2018. After this time, no refunds will be made.

If you are unable to attend for any reason, you are welcome to transfer your enrolment to another person, but please understand this is the responsibility of the person enrolled.

Where is it held? One Community Church, 184 Surrey Road, Blackburn, Vic 3130 (opp. Blackburn Primary)

This is a fantastic venue - air-conditioned, and on the ground floor with no stairs involved to access the classrooms. There is plenty of on-site all day parking. The classrooms will be secured each evening enabling you to leave your machine/sewing and work area set up for the entire duration of each course if you are attending for more than 1 day.

Class Times: Formal tuition times will be 10am – 4pm each day (4.30pm for Rachelle's classes)

Registration will be from 9.45am on day 1 of each class, and the classroom/s will be open from 9.45am each subsequent day for 'settle in' time prior to the classes commencing at 10am.

For your convenience, there will also be optional extended sewing time until 5.30pm available Mon – Thurs the first week, and Mon – Thurs the second week! No teaching during these times, however if you wish to do some extra work on your project, this will provide the perfect opportunity for you to do so.

Refreshments/Meals: Morning & afternoon tea each day, on-going tea and coffee are all provided for you! You will need to provide your own lunch – however there are nearby shops, and an on-site café (which we believe will have re-opened after their summer break!)

Accommodation: If you are travelling from a distance and require accommodation, there are several nearby places that may be suitable for you to stay. Please check for motels and bed and breakfast in nearby suburbs.

Thursday evening dinner: For anyone interested, we will again be organising our very popular dinner out on Thursday evening 17 January at the Blackburn Hotel. We gather there about 5.45pm, and usually wrap up by 7.30 – 8pm. So it's not a late night! This is optional and will be at your own cost, but it is a great way to celebrate the week!

Husbands/partners/friends welcome to join us too!

Class with Fiona Lindsay

Many would say it was probably inevitable that Fiona was born to stitch. Her Great Aunt was Enid Gilchrist Australian Dress Making Icon, her Mother was the Founding President of the Australian Quilters' Association and her maternal Grandmother spent many an hour stitching the Goldwork Badges for the Victorian Railways. Yes -inevitable!

Fiona's first quilt was a Baltimore, and applique has stayed as her first love. In 2003 she studied textile design, and that experience has led to her having creative work in both private national and international collections.

In 2015 she entered her red and white quilt into the International Quilt Festival in Houston and juried in to the "In Full Bloom" Exhibition. She has now had four quilts juried into the same Exhibition for the last four consecutive years!

Follow Fiona on Instagram @alittleredandwhite, to check out her work.

There will also be a class requirements list.

Class with Kate Marra

For many years, Kate worked for Babylock, a company who specialise in Overlocking Machines. Kate’s knowledge of overlockers is second to none, and she loves to share her expertise in this area and break down the barriers and fear people so often have of overlockers.

So, get those overlockers out of the cupboard, let Kate break down the scary threading part, and gets those machines stitching!

Class	Description	Class Fee
Learning to Love Your Overlocker Wednesday 16th January 10am – 4pm	This one-day course gives students a greater understanding of their overlocker and allows them to continue using it at home confidently. The kit provided covers a comprehensive 23-page booklet and also includes all fabrics required for the day. The course covers four thread overlocking, three thread overlocking, rolled hem, understanding differential feed, techniques for better results when stitching a circle, corners and working with difficult fabrics. A great pre-class to dress making!   	$125.00 Plus $30 kit fee, covering the cost of your workbook and all fabrics required for the class. Class numbers will be kept small so Kate can spend plenty of time with everyone!

Classes with Veronique Diligent

Veronique started quilting about 12 years ago and has developed a passion for needle turn appliqué. She is also a very skilled fine embroiderer and has combined these skills together in her most recent quilt designs. She finds her inspiration in her garden and nature

Her other interests include bee-keeping, and lives locally with her husband and two teenage children. A few of her more recent projects even feature a bee in them!

Veronique had designed many beautiful quilts which showcase her talent for stunning fabric choices, colour layering and trapunto. She designs patterns under the name of Wattlebird Designs, and now her own name Veronique's Quilt Designs.

And now she has started the clamshell movement – are you going to join in the fun?

Classes with Glenda Cust

Glenda's many talents include embroidery work, crochet, weaving, spinning wool, macramé and painting on silk.

Living locally, she is the proud mother of two, and a super proud grandmother!

Her full-time career in the nursing world took most of her time for many long years, but now "retired" she is as busy as ever designing projects, teaching and immersing herself in her craft passions, and sharing her many creative skills with students.

These two days are all about fun and stitching! 	$95.00 for Saturday, or $175 for both Friday & Saturday Plus cost of your chosen kit (price to be advised), and requirements list

Classes with Jo Dunsmuir – Dressmaking

Jo is the face behind “Frankie & Ray”, a small collection of women's clothing and accessories, and sometimes a few lovely things for your home. Located in southern coastal Victoria, Jo likes to use traditional techniques to create wearable pieces with a modern feel. Her designs are practical, comfortable, durable, and made for everyday wear.

She feels very strongly about quality fabrics and will hunt down the very best cottons and linens for her garments!
(Note: Just arrived! - some beautiful Liberty linens and lawns now in our shop which Jo loves to use for her patterns)

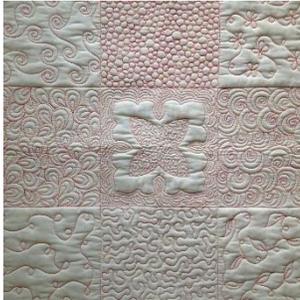

Frankie & Ray was named for her constant companions, Frankie, the Siamese cat, and Ray, her second-hand Greyhound. Both now sadly missed but living on with her label.

Class	Description	Class Fee
1-day class: Box Top Thursday 17th January, 10am – 4pm 	Jo chose this design to release as a sewing pattern for the way this garment suits all ages, and all shapes and sizes. Easily modified to lengthen or shorten, or hack the basic pattern to create a smock top or dress. Full instructions on how to personalise these options are included in the pattern. A generously sized top that drapes beautifully on the body, with a cap sleeve, a crew neckline, and a narrow hem.	$135 Plus pattern and requirements list to be advised (small class size only)
1-day class: Friday Shirt Friday 18th January, 10am – 4pm 	A simple yet nicely detailed top with a pintucked front to create a slightly smock shape. Choose from either three quarter sleeves, or cap sleeves. Unstructured and roomy in design, this top has a slightly scooped crew neckline and a narrow hem for both views. Perfect to pair with all your separates - jeans, skirts, or trousers. Choose cap sleeves for Summer, 3/4 sleeves to make this shirt a good choice for cooler weather.	$135 Plus pattern and requirements list to be advised (small class size only)

Classes with Rachelle Denny

Rachelle grew up in the Flinders Ranges in SA and moved to Adelaide when she was 18 years old, working as a Florist from the time she left school. She is now a mum to three kids ages 14, 16 and 18 and has been quilting for approx. 15 years and teaching for 10 of those.

She is a very experienced teacher with classes for all skill levels ranging from Beginners, Machine Applique, Mystery Days and Pre-cut Quilt Classes.
