Here is a Bargello Quilt that can be done as a Quilt As You Go!!!! All you will need to do is add Borders and Binding when done. How easy is that????

**Pattern Required – Ribbon in Motion by the Art of the Quilt

Fabric Selection

- 1/3 yard feature fabric (this fabric runs through the top of the entire ribbon – should be a dark color with a small design)
- ¼ yard of 7 fabrics – dark to medium (the dark side of the ribbon)
- ¼ yard of 7 fabrics – medium to light (the light side of the ribbon)
- 4 ½ yards of background fabric (also takes care of backing and binding)
- 1 ¾ yards of flannel watercolor grid, 2" or 4" grid (if you want do not want to do this in the quilt as you go method, you can eliminate this)

Supplies

- Cutting Mat (larger size, such a 18" x 24" preferred)
- Ruler
- Rotary Cutter
- Reverse Sewing Tool (Seam Ripper)
- Sewing Machine (in good working order)
- Pins (1 ¼ to 1 ½ inch pins – such as flower head pins)
- Thread that will be match the backing fabric

**Before Class –

- Please wash and starch all fabrics (except the flannel)
- Cut six 1 ½" strips of feature fabric and three 1 ½" strips of the remaining fourteen colored fabrics.
- Cut a 1 2/3 yard piece of your background fabric.
- Wash and dry the Flannel material twice.
