This is a great quilt to use those scraps, fat quarters or fabrics that have been waiting in your stash for the right use. Join Lauren in discovering how some of the most unlikely combinations will bring about great results in this scrappy design. The pattern is stress free and everyone will have fun making their own quilt that produces wonderful results..

Pattern Required – Scrappy Nest by Shawn York

Fabric Selection

- Pile of beloved and treasured scraps (ranging from 3" to 9 1/2 ") or 30 fat quarters
- Binding - 3/4 yard

Supplies

- Cutting Mat (larger size, such as 18" x 24" preferred)
- Rotary Cutter
- Small scissors
- Ruler (6" x 24")
- Square Up Ruler (min. 9 1/2")
- Seam Ripper
- Sewing Machine (in good working order)
- Small Iron and Ironing pad, if you have it
- Various colors of Thread (I used a lot of spools that only had a little bit remaining)
