

Doug Leko of Antler Quilt Designs
April 6 & 7 2018

Enjoy a weekend with us learning, stitching and inspiring. Doug is a very talented designer and teacher. You may know him from his books The Potting Shed, Stashastic, & Town Square are just a few we have carried recently in our shop. He designs for many of Moda's fabric designer and is an excellent teacher. You really don't want to miss out on this event. We have waited 2 years to get him to our town.

We will offer three opportunities:
Friday April 6th we will have a class from his new book Stashastic. Where we will make as many blocks as we can of his new pattern English Knot

Saturday Morning April 7th will be a lecture. Doug is bringing lots of inspiration and suit cases filled with his quilts and knowledge on his techniques. He will share his almost 20 years of experience and how he got to where he is now.

Lunch will be provided to those attending either Saturday event.

Saturday afternoon we will be working on a table runner called Bethlehem from his new book Once Upon a Memory. (not yet released)

You will receive the book with your class fee. Books will not be available until class. Additional details will be sent by e-mail nearer to the event date.
