MACHINE QUILTING WORKSHOP

Free Motion & Dual Feed/Walking Foot

Machine quilting is the process of stitching your quilt top to batting and backing. We will start by layering your "quilt"; a pre-printed "practice" panel. Stitch straight line quilting with a dual feed (walking foot). Then learn Free Motion with lots of techniques: stippling, echo quilting, continuous line designs and more. Class includes a Lunch Break.

Purchase of practice panel required. $49

Sun. May 20 12 noon-5:00

BEGINNER QUILTING WITH TEMPLATES & RULERS

"It's like adding training wheels!"

Rulers have aided long arm quilters for years. Now Westalee Designs by Sew Steady is offering a ruler foot and a wide range of rulers to use on YOUR machine. Get hands on practice and take your free motion quilting to the next level.

Sampler Set I and the 12" Arc are used in class along with the Ruler Foot for your shank height. Please see our chart! You MUST have a flat surface around your machine to support the quilt and ruler. A SEW STEADY TABLE is recommended. These are custom made for your machine..

Class fee: $99 for 5 sessions, 2 1/2 hours each. Supply list available at registration.

37"x 37"

In class students will stitch the blocks pictured on the right. Once the blocks are quilted they are then put together in "Quilt As You Go" fashion. In class the basic technique for each ruler is taught.

Thurs. May 10, 17, 24, 31, June 7
1:00-3:30

Weds. May 2, 9, 16, 23, 30
6:00-8:30

MEADOW DANCE RUNNER

42"x24"

CHOOSE EITHER FEATHER FOCUS OR BEAUTIFUL BORDERS TO QUILT YOUR RUNNER!

Use either set to quilt this panel designed by Amanda Murphy in our one day class. It is pre-marked with the crosshair lines so you will add batting and backing and you are ready to quilt!

Class fee: $25.
