Dunlap Celebration this year!!! A HUGE

thank you to those that have already volunteered to help!! We still need more tho!

We do have someone that has stepped up to help co-chair but we need one or two more!

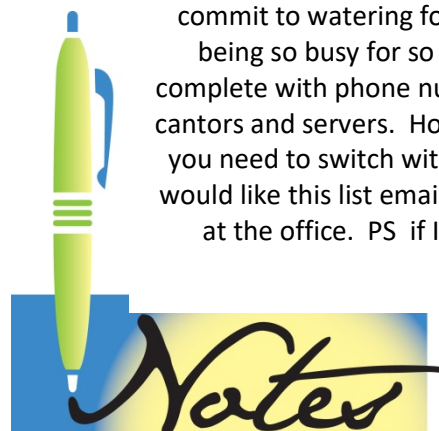

Please let the office know if you are willing to step up and help in any way! We will be having a planning meeting Monday night at 7:00pm at the parish center office, and we'd like any help we can get!!

Signup sheets for work times will be in back of the church next week.

Thank you to those that have stepped up and volunteered to help with the watering this summer. I do need some more weeks filled in tho. Please let me know if you are willing to commit to watering for a 2 week period. Also with summer being so busy for so many people I have composed a list complete with phone numbers of lectors, Eucharistic ministers, cantors and servers. Hopefully this will make it easier for you if you need to switch with someone. Please let me know if you would like this list emailed to you or stop in and pick up a copy at the office. PS if I missed anyone please let me know thanks Debbie

from Pope Francis' Sermon on the Feast of Corpus Christi

The Gospel we just heard speaks of the Last Supper, but surprisingly, pays more attention to the preparations than to the dinner itself. We keep hearing the word “prepare”. For example, the disciples ask: “Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?” (Mk 14:12). Jesus sends them off with clear instructions to make the necessary preparations and they find “a large room... furnished and ready” (v. 15). The disciples went off to prepare, but the Lord had already made his own preparations.

Jesus prepares a place for us here below because the Eucharist is the beating heart of the Church. It gives her birth and rebirth; it gathers her together and gives her strength. But the Eucharist also prepares for us a place on high, in eternity, for it is the Bread of heaven. It comes down from heaven – it is the only thing on earth that tastes of eternity. It is the bread of things to come; even now, it grants us a foretaste of a future infinitely greater than all we can hope for or imagine. It is the bread that satiates our greatest expectations and feeds our finest dreams. It is, in a word, the pledge of eternal life – not simply a promise but a pledge, a concrete anticipation of what awaits us there. The Eucharist is our “reservation” for the heavenly banquet; it is Jesus himself, as food for our journey towards eternal life and happiness.

In the consecrated host, together with a place, Jesus prepares for us a meal, food for our nourishment. In life, we constantly need to be fed: nourished not only with food but also with plans and affection, hopes and desires. We hunger to be loved. But the most pleasing compliments, the finest gifts, and the most advanced technologies are not enough; they never completely satisfy us. The Eucharist is simple food, like bread, yet it is the only food that satisfies, for there is no greater love. There we encounter Jesus really; we share his life and we feel his love. There you can realize that his death and resurrection are for you. And when you worship Jesus in the Eucharist, you receive from him the Holy Spirit and you find peace and joy. Dear brothers and sisters, let us choose this food of life! Let us make Mass our priority! Let us rediscover Eucharistic adoration in our communities! Let us implore the grace to hunger for God, with an insatiable desire to receive what he has prepared for us.

The Gospel ends by telling us that the disciples, “after singing a hymn, went out” (v. 26). At the end of Mass, we too will go out; we will go forth with Jesus, who will pass through the streets of this city. Jesus wants to dwell among you. He wants to be part of your lives, to enter your houses and to offer his liberating mercy, his blessing and his consolation. You have experienced painful situations; the Lord wants to be close to you.

Let us open our doors to him and say:

*Come, Lord, and visit us.
We welcome you into our hearts,
our families and our city.
We thank you because you have prepared for us
the food of life and a place in your Kingdom.
Make us active in preparing your way,
joyous in bringing you, who are the Way, to others,
and thus to bring brotherhood, justice, and peace
to our streets. Amen.*
