

Positano Shirt + Dress Supply List

This elegant and easy to sew peasant blouse or dress includes full, gathered raglan sleeves with elastic at the wrists, a gentle v-neck notch, and a gathered yoke with shoulder darts for shaping. The dress includes short sleeves, side pockets, and a narrow tie that loops around the waist. This style is also suitable for embroidery or other embellishment. It can be worn as a casual blouse, draped dress, or even a swimsuit coverup.

Pattern: Positano Blouse + Dress by Liesl + co.

Fabric Requirements (for all sizes):

- 4 yards of fabric (Suggested fabrics: Woven cottons, linen, or rayon)
 - Make sure to pre-wash your fabrics and press out wrinkles.
- 2 yards of Lightweight fusible interfacing
- 1/2 yard of $\frac{3}{8}$ " elastic

Other tools and supplies:

- Thread snips
- Thread to match your fabric (polyester preferred)
- Pre-wound bobbins (or wind your own)
- Fabric scissors
- Machine needles size 80/12
- Straight pins
- Water soluble or heat erase marking pens (I recommend Frixion pen for light fabrics and the clover white marking pen CLO517 for dark fabrics)
- Sewing machine capable of straight stitching (foot pedal and power cord, too)
 - You will need a standard sewing foot (or clear foot)
- Seam ripper
- Iron and pressing mat (Some will be available for class, but ironing space is limited, so it's good to bring your own)