

BLUEBERRY GRANOLA

TABLE RUNNER or QUILT

General Info:

The table runner is made from 5" squares. The runner finishes at 18" x 72".

The quilt is made from 7" squares (so the piecing will go faster). It finishes at 65" x 78".

Supplies Needed:

- Blueberry Granola Pattern
- Rotary cutter and ruler
- Usual sewing supplies (thread, scissors, pins, seam ripper, etc.)
- $\frac{1}{4}$ " foot for your sewing machine, or any other method you prefer to get an accurate  $\frac{1}{4}$ " seam

Fabric Needed:

Table runner: 77 - 5" squares (2 charm packs, or you can cut your own 5" squares)

Binding:  $\frac{3}{8}$  yd fabric

Backing: 1- $\frac{1}{8}$  yd fabric

Quilt: 140 – 7" blocks

As a minimum, you should choose at least 8 different fabrics.

With 8 fabrics, you need 24" x WOF of each fabric.

For more variety you could choose 12 different fabrics.

With 12 fabrics, you need 16" x WOF of each fabric.

Binding:  $\frac{2}{3}$  yd fabric

Backing: Amount will vary depending on your preferred layout and quilting method.

Pre-class Instructions:

- If making table runner from charm squares, there is no need for any advance cutting.
- If making the table runner from yardage, precut at least 77 – 5" square blocks.
- If making quilt, you need to precut at least 140 – 7" square blocks.
