Nadine's Notes

Whether we feel it or not, fall is approaching, school is starting, and we cannot help but notice how quickly 2013 is flying by. Things are happening in the guild. We have filled our baskets, made rag quilts and had our sew days. The Christmas Committee is planning and working, preparing for the Christmas Auction. Please contact Judy or a member of the committee if you wish to contribute your time, talent or treasure. Do not forget the August fat quarter, a dark, and your basket block or other quilt block to participate in the Round Robin activity. Hope to see you at the meeting and/or one of the "Bubbles" workshops scheduled.

Happy quilting, Nadine

Program Notes!

The August program is ideal for those of you who are tired of using patterns someone else designed. You probably have some ideas for new designs but aren't sure how to proceed. Maybe you found a pattern you like but don't like the size. Diane Redfearn will be our speaker, sharing her knowledge with you to "Design it Yourself". Be there to learn something new to guide you in your quilting journey.

Between Meetings, at 1:30, you can learn about "EQ" (that's Electric Quilt). See demonstrations and gain information from Alice Bott and Carolyn Sirmon, two QGA members who use this software. This is another opportunity for you to learn ways to "Design it Yourself".

Lotto Block

August's Lotto block has been selected and cut. It will be an easy scrappy 8 ½" pieced block. You will be supplying two 5" squares of the same fabric.

We are still asking for another person to help at the NIGHT MEETINGS. We already have one member to help, but we would like another as well, just in case someone can't come. You are not being asked to do anything except at the meetings. Hand out and introduce the block on the Give month and Help collect and award the winner on the Bring Back month and to pick up. If there is more than one, it makes it much easier. Ladies, if we don't start receiving help from night members on projects like Lotto Block, they will no longer be offered.

Please contact Mary Meche at 337-781-7460 or normarymeche@bellsouth.net
