Nadine's Notes

As 2013 marches steadily toward its departure, we are preparing for a joyful and fun-filled time of the year: Cooler weather, fall colors, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. Between festivals and football games, we still find time to work on our fun projects and quilts. It is also a busy and fun-filled time for Quilters' Guild Acadienne. Quilt Camp is quickly approaching, the registration deadline is October 16th. Contact Cindy Brignac in order to register. The Christmas Auction Committee will be meeting on Tuesday, October 22 from 9:30 to 3:30. If you are interested in helping, contact Judy Garber.

Again, a reminder that the October meetings, the board and general meetings will be one week earlier due to the conflict with the International Quilt Festival in Houston. The Board Meeting will be October 17th and the QGA General meeting will be October 24th. Mark your calendars. I hope to see you at the October meeting to share in new opportunities and activities and to have fun, learn something, and make new friends.

Happy quilting, Nadine

Program Notes:

October is going to be a great meeting! We have so much going on! Sue Melancon will be giving an awesome presentation on combining all those random "orphan blocks" we all have lying around waiting to be used -I can't wait to see what she has to inspire us! If you have a completed project you have made with your own Orphan blocks, we would love for you to bring for display and be able to inspire others as well!

Joan will have more Paint Chip Challenges available for pick up, so be sure to grab one of those. And don't forget to sign up for the Michael Young class for January...

Lunch is being ordered from Anne's Table, a great new restaurant on Jefferson Street featuring healthy, gourmet food.

There will not be a vendor this month because of the Houston Quilt Festival...

Don't forget to bring a friend to the meeting or Sew Day.
Our membership is growing and our goal is 200!

The minutes were motioned to be accepted as printed in the newsletter by Sue Melancon and seconded by Cindi Whittington, passed unanimously with no corrections. ~We had 2 guests – Jan Breaux from Lafayette and Hazel Broussard from Gueydan.

We are still collecting donations – please fill out a donation slip with the item. We have about 10-12 quilts donated so far. This month's Fat Quarter donation was light colors, next month will be fall colors and November will be Christmas. The next work day is Tuesday, October 22 at Northwood from 9:00 to 3:30.

Newsletter Prices

I would like to clarify questions about printing the Newsletter.

One black & white set in bulk print, is $0.80 + stamp.
~ A B&W copy is provided to any member that would like it mailed to them.

A color set costs $5.90. At 11 per year: $64.90 (+stamp).
~If you would like to receive a newsletter in color, please notify me to make arrangements.

If you would like to see the newsletter in color, but do not have an email, here are a few suggestions:

*Find a quilt sister that will invite you over for coffee and reading time on her computer.

*Perhaps a family member or friend who has an email address, will allow you to have it sent to them, for the same purpose? All I need is the email address. Again, this is to simply see it in color, and will not affect your choice to receive it by mail. I would never ask you to ask a loved one to use their ink to print it out, but wouldn't a lovely visit always be a nice welcome?

Let me know if any of this information interests you.

Christmas Notes

There are only 2 more QGA meetings to bring your donations for the Christmas Auction!! We've already gotten some really nice items and we're waiting for yours!

The November meeting is only two weeks before the auction, so it would help the committee to have the majority of items a little earlier.

Thank you all ahead of time for your donations. Auction Tickets will be on sale for the dinner ($25) and for the Ticket Auction ($1 each) at the October meetings. Look for the Christmas Table in Grandstaff hall at the meetings. It's getting closer and we're getting excited!!! Don't forget to bring your Fall colors Fat Quarters for October!!
