General Meeting Minutes

Date & Location: January 28, 2016, at Northwood United Methodist Church, Lafayette, LA.

Call to Order: President Liz Breau called the meeting to order at 9:30 am.

Guests: Two guests were introduced: Claire Champagne and Mary Melancon who joined the guild.

Announcements: Carolyn Sirmon informed the group that anyone wishing to crochet might consider making a waterproof mat (6ft X 4.5 ft). This mat is made out of plastic bags which makes the mat waterproof.

These mats are being made to donate to the homeless. Anyone interested can speak with Carolyn Sirmon for more details. Liz announced that another Quilt Camp is planned for March or April. This second Quilt Camp will be open first to members who did not attend the September Quilt Camp. She will be working with the NUMC secretary to find an appropriate date. Liz will also be calling the Petroleum Club to secure a date for the 2016 Quilt Auction. Liz told members that she has not yet completed the commemorative quilts for the founding members but will have them completed. Torch told guild members that 40 people have signed up for the Quilt Retreat. Mary Ann Caruso is the contact for questions related to the retreat. Diane Redfearn asked members to contribute plastic bags. NUMC is collecting the plastic bags to support local schools as they teach students about recycling. Plastic bags will be accepted through April. Ken Broussard asked new members to have their photo taken for the guild directory. Nadine Cain passed out paper copies of the newsletter to those members who do not have email.

Torch informed the guild that the Mod Squad's quilt named, "Louisiana, Oh What a State We Are In," has been mailed to the Pasadena Quilt Competition. Any money earned from the sale of the quilt will be donated to a charity.

Minutes: The December guild minutes were accepted by membership after Marcy Canulette moved to accept the minutes as accurate, and Pat Harper seconded the motion.

Treasurer's Report: Janet Gianelloni provided the monthly report. Balance forward as of December 10, 2015, began with a balance of $19,449.08, deposits for the month totaled $60.00, and disbursements were $1,954.60. Ending balance for the month as of January 21, 2016, was $17,554.48. Janet informed the membership that the guild is in good financial shape.

Lotto Blocks: Judy Garber and Mary Meche demonstrated the process for making the Log Cabin diamond block.

Membership: Torch Archibald provided the Membership Report. She pointed out that with the two guests who joined the guild today, the total number of guild members is now 161. Betty Lowry is printing the additional contact cards. Ken Broussard informed guild members about the Sew Day planned for the Grand Opening at Allbrands on February 6th. Members can set up their machines and sew in the expanded shop from 9 am until 2 pm. If participating, members should wear their name tags and bring contact cards. The ribbon cutting ceremony will take place at noon. Allbrands will be awarding door prizes. Ken also discussed a guild event sponsored by the Acadiana Center for the Arts (ACA).

QGA quilts will be on display at a downtown location for two months. The ACA curator will select the quilts to be displayed. The quilts will be displayed so people attending the Festival International can see them. Ken also discussed the event planned for March 11-13th at the Mouton House.

Quilts submitted by QGA members may be selected for display at the Mouton House or at the downtown location. All the quilts donated for display must have a sleeve. Guild members should have a label on the back of the quilt that includes the quilter's name, address, and phone number. A photo of the quilt with the identifying information must be attached to the registration form. The donated quilts should be clean, odorless. Each quilt should have batting and be quilted. The quilts should be submitted in a clear plastic bag with a copy of the submission form taped to the top. Each quilt should be folded to show the identifying label. Art quilts and wall hanging quilts will be accepted. Guild members will not be able to designate a venue for their quilt. For the Mouton House event, guild members are asked to volunteer to greet visitors. Members can begin submitting quilts for both quilt shows. ACA will partner with QGA for future events.

Torch told the guild that in conjunction with the National Quilt Day event at the Mouton House, Lafayette Public Library is partnering with the guild to sponsor three additional quilting events: Carencro Library on March 4th, Main Library for March 8th, and Southside Library on March 31.

All of these events will showcase the quality work that our guild members produce.

on the Gee's Bend trip details. Members can now sign up for the field trip. The bus will stop at three quilt shops on the trip to Alabama and on the way back from Alabama. To date 10 members have registered for the three day trip. A total of 25 members are needed to cover the cost of bus. The deadline for paying is February 25th. The bus leaves on March 31 and returns on April 2nd. Members will stay at the Hampton Inn. QGA members will have first opportunity to register for the trip. After February 25th, Torch will open registration to people outside the guild. The Pettway ladies are making a special work day so they can be available to QGA members when they visit. Torch also displayed a quilt she purchased at the last Quilt Auction because it is similar to the official quilt of Alabama. She plans to take the quilt with her on the trip to Gee's Bend to inquire whether it could have been made by the Gee's Bend ladies. Torch and Amy initiated a new quilt challenge. They ask members to make a quilt block block inspired by Gee's Bend designs and using Gee's Bend fabrics. This challenge requires members to assume the Gee's Bend attitude. These blocks can be part of "Show & Tell at the April meeting.

Program: Torch introduced the 25 minute video on Why Quilts Matter: History, Art, and Politics. This video described the Gee's Bend quilters and demonstrated the historic significance of this isolated group of women. Gee's Bend quilters possessed an amazing artistic ability to produce unique quilts.

Program Announcements: Diane Redfearn informed the members that Sew Bees lost Grace Presbyterian Church as their venue. Diane proposed a new sewing group called, "Guild Sew & Sew," a weekend scheduled each month. The date for this weekend sewing group will be the first Sunday of each month and the Saturday proceeding this Sunday. Those dates have been cleared by NUMC. Twenty seats will be available on a first come, first serve basis. The first scheduled weekend will be February 6 & 7th. The board has agreed to pay the $50 fee for using the facilities each month. Participating guild members are asked to make a "love offering," whatever they can afford. Diane reminded members that the February program will be Judy Holley's presentation. Judy will also offer a paper piecing workshop on the American Beauty on the Friday and Saturday after the guild meeting.

The March program will have two parts: Rosemary Florstedt's presentation on barn quilts. The second portion of the March program is, "I Swapped the Block & the Block Won," an audience participation program. This is an opportunity for guild members who swapped blocks to show the quilts they made from these swapped blocks. The April program will be a presentation on the new website and the ways guild members can use it as a resource.

Nomination Committee: After reminding the group that the Nomination Committee needed two morning guild members, Marcy Canulette and Judy Garber volunteered.

Door Prize Winners: Linda Ducotey, Carol Delahoussaye, Carolyn Sirmon, and Laura Parton won the door prizes.

Birthday Recognition: Three members with January birthdays received fat quarters.

Membership Name Tag Prize Winner: Teresa LeBlanc won the fat quarter for wearing her name tag.

Show & Tell: Eleven members displayed their quilting projects: Phyllis Tabbert, Gloria Aguillard, Betty Foti, Becky Haaland, Joan Schroeder, Nadine Cain, Beth Andrepont, Janet Gianelloni, Debbie Theriot, Dottie Meaux, and Doris Deroche.

Meeting Adjourned: The meeting adjourned at 11:30 am.

Annual Quilt Challenge

Quilts due at the February Meeting

Product Packaging Inspiration

This year's challenge is based on the idea that manufacturers spend millions of dollars a year on having artists create their product packaging.

Our "Challenge" is to find a product that the colors in the packaging appeal to you and you create a quilt using these colors!

The other "Challenge" is the quilts are to be no larger than 30" x 30" and include only the colors on the packaging. You may exclude a color, but you may not add a color!

A photo of the product or the actual product is to be attached to the back of your quilt for the Judges to use to decide on the quilts that best use the color inspiration.

Deadline for quilts is the February meeting – February 26, 2016. Quilts will be displayed at the Alexandre Mouton House in March for National Quilt Day.

March Program “I Swapped the Block and the Block Won!”

Our March meeting will be an “Audience Participation” meeting! We would like for you to bring quilts and tops you have made with blocks from block swaps! These can be from any swaps you have participated in – the Guild, small groups, online, etc....

You can even bring the “bag of blocks” or two you may have – it could be an opportunity to pass them on to someone who might do something with them!

So, start digging them out now!

Lotto Block

Please remember to bring your Diamond Log Cabin blocks (and the plastic bags) to the February meeting. If you have lotto blocks from other months to return, bring those too. The winners are always happy to get extras.

QGA February 2016 Retreat Message

The 2016 QGA Retreat was attended by 39 ladies who got a great deal done and made some wonderful memories. The retreat started on Thursday morning at 9am and ended on Sunday afternoon at 3pm. So many beautiful quilts were worked on and completed.

This year was the first time that the group had to split up into 2 rooms to sew. Splitting up might not have been the most ideal situation at first but most attendees agreed that it provided ample space for each person to bring all their sewing items and to sew, cut, and iron.

Games, Show and Tell and meals provided the group togetherness time. The games are always fun and Show and Tell allows the others a chance to view the amazing work of our fellow Guild members.

Much thanks to an awesome retreat committee - Cindy Allen, Torch Archibald, Mandy Caruso, Janet Gianelloni, Peggy Hardy, Gerry LeBlanc, Kim Leblanc, Susie Massicot, Pat Mayfield, and Gloria Raggio. I would also like to thank Patsy BreauX for helping with the mug rugs. Each and everyone one of you put forth 100% to make this retreat enjoyable and a huge success in everyone's eyes. Having a great team makes this event very easy to plan and coordinate. Much love to each of you.

I would also like to thank all shops and individuals that contributed to the ditty boxes and prizes that each person received. It is always nice to be able to give each person a gift or gift card. This year we had enough prizes to give each person something nice. All shops in Louisiana were contacted.

QGA February 2016 Retreat Message con't

Much thanks to the following shops and individuals:

Sew This (Abita Springs), Quilted Owl (Jefferson), Mes Amis (New Orleans), All Stitched Up by Angela (Slidell), A & A (Broussard), Paulette Benoit, Mary Castille, Alice Bott, Gloria Reggio, Aunt Nell's, Oberlin Quilt Shop (Oberlin), J and B's Quilt Shop (Sunset), Red Stick Quilt Shop (Baton Rouge), The Quilt Cupboard (Berwick), Emily's Closet (New Iberia), The Happy Quilter (Baton Rouge), The Fabric Shop in Ruston (Ruston), Lazy Lucy Retreat House (Scott) and Kay - our resident Massage Therapist.

Everything these shops and individuals contributed was greatly appreciated. When visiting the shops or engaging in one of the services provided by these contributed please thank them for supporting QGA.

The retreat provided much laughter, new friendships, much needed time spent with each other and great memories made with special friends. Looking forward to next year's retreat already.
