

QUILTERS' GUILD ACADIENNE ANNUAL AUCTION
 QGA HOEDOWN
 SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 2020
 11 AM – 3 PM

The 2020 Auction will have the traditional Verbal/Silent and Jar Raffle components. The Verbal Auction is conducted by an auctioneer. Each item is described and held up. The auctioneer begins the bidding at the suggested minimum bid based on value. The Silent Auction displays items individually and guests can place their bid on form provided by item at any amount over the highest listed. Items on the Silent Auction will have a minimum bid and the value of any item will be at least $20. At the end of the Silent Auction, items are awarded to highest bidder. Homemade food items will be accepted on afternoon of auction. (Indicate if there are nuts in recipe.) These will be included in Silent Auction. Bonus Raffle consists of items valued at less than $20. Guests can take as many chances as desired by putting ticket(s) worth $1 each in item's corresponding container.

Below are suggestions to spark your creativity going. With each suggestion, think about what type of handmade item could be included to enhance its value. There are many items suggested for each theme. We welcome small, medium or large themed baskets/boxes/unique holders. We encourage you to ask your favorite grocer, drug store, spa, winery, restaurant, etc. for a donation. While you're at it, invite them to attend!

Bring donations to guild meeting. Give to Donation Team Member at registration table

Or contact Shelley Gamblin, Auction Chair (337.275.1813 for arrangement to deliver or pick up, if necessary.

Please follow these requests before delivering your donation:
