

NEWS BLAST

As we jump into summer, Louise's Needlework hopes you'll keep us in mind when shopping for that great small (or large) project to take on your summer travels. Even if you plan on a relaxing staycation, you'll want to make sure and be prepared for stitching.

It's your last chance to find a great canvas from Lycette Designs at our special trunk show prices. This new design line aims to provide "Colorful, cheeky needlepoint canvases...". As you can see from these examples, they succeed at their goal.

In July we look forward to hosting a trunk show from Danji Designs. Take a look at these Danji canvases currently in our store for an idea of the great canvases they offer.
